consolidation and conversion shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the members and until their successors are elected and qualify. At each annual meeting or, in case of failure to hold the annual meeting as specified in the bylaws, at a special meeting called for that purpose, the members shall elect trustees to hold office until the next annual meeting of the members, except as otherwise provided in KRS 279.310 to 279.600. Each trustee shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor is elected and qualifies.

(3) Instead of electing all the trustees annually, the bylaws may provide that one third [half] of them, or a number as near thereto as possible, shall be elected annually for a term of three years [to serve until the next annual meeting of the members, and that the remaining trustees shall be elected to serve until the second succeeding annual meeting. Thereafter, as trustees' terms expire, the members shall elect their successors to serve until the second succeeding annual meeting after their election.].

(4) A majority of the board of trustees shall constitute a quorum.

(5) The board of trustees may exercise all of the powers of a cooperative not conferred upon the members by KRS 279.310 to 279.600, or its articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(6) The officers of a cooperative shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected annually by and from the board of trustees. When a person holding any such office ceases to be a trustee he shall cease to hold such office. The office of secretary and of treasurer may be held by the same person. The board of trustees may also elect or appoint such other officers, agents, or employees as it deems necessary or advisable and shall prescribe their powers and duties. Any officer may be removed from office and his successor elected in the manner prescribed in the bylaws.

CHAPTER 16

(H. B. 1)

AN ACT relating to state purchasing and property control.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. (1) The Division of Purchases shall be headed by a director who shall be a person acquainted with the methods and technique of public purchasing. He shall be appointed by the Commissioner of Finance pursuant to provisions of Chapter 12 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

(2) The Director of Purchases, under the direction of the Commissioner of Finance, shall purchase, or shall delegate and control the purchase of, the combined requirements of all spending agencies of the state for contractual services, rentals of all types, supplies, materials, equipment, and services, except that competitive bids may not be required;

(a) for contractual services where no competition exists, such as telephone service, electrical energy, and other public utility services;

(b) when in the judgment of the Director of Purchases food, clothing, equipment, supplies, or other materials to be used in laboratory and experimental studies can be purchased otherwise to the best advantage of the state; and instructional materials available from only one source;
